CO-4 DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE JOHN PADORA
PREPARES FOR UPCOMING SPECIAL ELECTION
FOLLOWING REP. KEN BUCK RESIGNATION ANNOUNCEMENT

WINDSOR, CO- Colorado Congressional District 4 Democratic candidate John Padora is ready to move with full force to earn his seat in our nation's Capitol. Following Representative Ken Buck's sudden announcement of his resignation next week. Team Padora is gearing up to take on anyone in this special election, which Governor Jared Polis proposes will occur on June 25, 2024. John is rightfully confident that he is the best choice to represent Colorado voters in Congress.

"This race just got a lot more interesting," said John Padora. "And my team and I are ready to push full force against a Republican challenger. We know we can rally the support across our great district from those who refuse to accept right-wing extremism. I'm ready to serve my community and represent Congressional District 4 with honor and integrity."

John Padora is available for one-on-one interviews with advance notice. Please contact Katherine Garcia at katherine@padoraforcongress.com or 325-513-4477 for interview requests.
